COURT RECORD.

United States Court—Judge Townsend.
Three decisions were rendered yesterday by Judge Townsend. In the case of the Union Switch and Signal company and the Fidelity Title and Trust company against the Hall Signal company, the suit was on an infringement of a patent. A demurrer pleading lack of jurisdiction was sustained by Judge Townsend.

CASE AGAINST THE NORTHWESTERN ROAD.
In the case of Henry H. Booddy of New York against the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad company, it was claimed that a settlement of financial transactions Booddy, who was the financial agent of the company, had not been credited with $25,000 which he had paid.
He was given power to show by proper proceedings whether fraud or mistake existed, which had not appeared as a question of fact before the court.

A CASE AGAINST A SOUTHERN RAILROAD.
In the case of Joseph J. Kittell against the Augusta, Tallahassee and Gulf Railroad company and the Clara Belle, Tallahassee and George railroad and also one William Clark a demurrer was sustained and the plaintiff was given permission to amend his petition within twenty days.

DECISIONS RESERVED.
The libel suit of James Walsh of New York, owner of the tug Capella, against the schooner Ward, was also argued and decision reserved. Decision was also reserved in the case of the Traut & Hine manufacturing company against the Waterbury Buckle company of Waterbury.

field, drunk, judgment suspended, assault with intent to rob, bound over to the superior court under $1,000; Mildred Brumhall, drunk, 30 days in jail, $5.42 costs; Edward Burke, begging, 60 days in jail, $5.42 costs; Catherine Ryder, breach of the peace, nolite; Pierce J. Downey, drunk, 30 days in jail, $7. fine, $5.42 costs; Thomas B. Kellogg, seduction, continued until February 2 under $500 bonds.

Court Notes.
In the common pleas court yesterday before Judge Hotchkiss was begun the suit of the H. H. Babcock company of New York against John T. Hollan of Derby. The suit is over the sale of some carriages.

GERMANIA HOTEL.
In the probate court yesterday afternoon George Miller, the proprietor of the Germania hotel on Water street, died a voluntary assignment, naming Guaranty Trust as trustee. The assets are listed at $2,000 and the liabilities at $2,500.

INSURANCE CASE.
In the superior court, civil side, yesterday Judge Wheeler non-suited the plaintiff in the suit of Isadore Weinberg against the Phoenix Insurance company as he failed to make out a prima facie case.

In the common pleas court yesterday the jury in the case of Frank H. Morse against the Trenton Pottery company rendered a verdict for the plaintiff to recover $343.69 and costs.

A CHERISH CASE.
Late yesterday afternoon in the superior court was begun the suit of William and Bennett Bristol against Samuel Norton. Both parties to the suit reside in Cheshire and are neighbors. The suit is brought to recover damages. It is alleged that Norton built a fire on his property, which spread and damaged the property of the plaintiffs. The case is still on.

SUIT BY DR. HAWKES.
John Moran of Westville has been sued by Dr. W. W. Hawkes to recover a bill of $75 for professional services.
Moran's property was yesterday placed under attachment.

CONFERENCE MEETING.
Special Meeting To-night at the Presbyterian Church.

A meeting for prayer and conference in reference to the spiritual interests of the city will be held this (Thursday) evening at a quarter before eight o'clock in the Presbyterian chapel on Elm street, between Orange and State.

This meeting is called by request of those who have been interested in the afternoon meetings of the past two weeks. The ministers and pastors with their congregations are earnestly requested to be present. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody.

FAIR HAVEN.
The ladies of the W. C. T. U. voted at their Tuesday afternoon meeting, at the suggestion of their president, to send a barrel of clothing and imperishable provisions, such as beans, rice, tea, coffee, etc., to the sufferers in Nebraska. Contributions can be sent this week to No. 17 Grand avenue, in care of Mrs. Munson.

The birth anniversaries of Mrs.
Charles F. Foote and her son, Edwin, occurring on the same day, were celebrated on Tuesday at the home of the former, 143 Exchange street. At supper time the family, with a few friends, were served with a fine repast prepared by the hostess. During the evening about fifteen members of the West Haven division, Sons of Temperance, of which Edwin Foote is worthy patriarch, called, and with games, music and refreshments, the company had an enjoyable time, dispersing with the wish that the host and hostess might live to enjoy many more anniversaries of their birth.

The Woman's Baptist Home Mission union will hold their quarterly meeting at the Grand avenue Baptist church this afternoon, commencing at 2:30.
This is called the best meeting of the year, and all interested in home missions are cordially invited to attend.

PERSONAL.

Hugh Galbraith is confined to his home with grip.

Charles H. Harris of R. & C. Harris & Co., is sick at his home, 378 Howard avenue, and is threatened with pneumonia.

Matthew C. McKiernan of No. 16 Park street has removed to Boston, Mass.

Mrs. W. D. Bryan, who has been ill with pneumonia, is somewhat improved.
Miss Barbara Ogilvie of No. 94 Crown street has returned from a visit to New York.

Miss Elizabeth Hall of New Lebanon, N. H., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H.
Cameron.

Dr. Stephen J. Maher received a telegram yesterday from Edward Downes of this city, the United States consul at Amsterdam, announcing that he was on vacation and would sail yesterday for New York on the Maasdam.
It will be Consul Downes' first visit since his departure.

Selectman Stahl, who has a light attack of the grip, went out again yesterday, though not fully recovered.

Mrs. H. D. Vibbert of Torrington is in the city assisting in the care of the mother, who has been ill for a number of weeks.

Rev. A. V. R. Abbott preached the dedication sermon of the Methodist church in Beacon Falls twenty-three years ago this month.

George Whiting of Sharon has been visiting friends in this city lately.
Police Lieutenant Bannon of Waterbury is recovering from an attack of the grip.

Frederick W. Mansfield was yesterday bound over to the superior court under $1,000 bonds for assault with intent to rob Police Dealer Edward P.
Quigley.

Rev. Father McKee of New Haven and Rev. Fathers Smith of Birmingham and Broderick of Meriden, celebrated a solemn high mass yesterday at St. Bridget's convent in Meriden at the funeral of Sister Mary Agatha Smith. A number of New Haven friends of the departed sister were present.

The burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery, the bearers being Maurice O'Brien, Timothy Hurley, Patrick Leahy, Matthew McDonnell and James Smith of New Haven.

E. R. Pond was yesterday appointed postmaster at West Torrington, Litchfield county, Connecticut, vice A. H.
Palmer, resigned.

MANY SORROWING FRIENDS.

The funeral of George E. Maltby, yesterday afternoon.

The funeral services of George E.
Maltby took place at his late residence, No. 190 Oak street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A very large attendance of sorrowing friends gathered to pay the last tribute of loving regard and esteem for the departed. Calvary Bastist church, with which the deceased had been for years identified as a member and an officer, and banking and leading business circles of the city were represented by many of our prominent and active business men. The Rev.
Mr. Potts officiated, offering prayer, following which he read comforting ecclesiastical passages as he proceeded, his remarks being exceedingly appropriate and strikingly beautiful. He paid a fine tribute to the memory of the deceased, his high aims and honored position in the city, and among his colleagues in the city's business circles, and his interest in the property of the church, with which he was identified.

There was exquisite singing by the famous old quartet of Calvary Baptist church, composed of Mrs. Ellen, Miss Gaffney and others. This fine choir was ever a great favorite with Mr.
Maltby. The choir sang the selection, beginning "O Eyes That Are Merry and Hearts That Are Sore"; also "Lead Kindly Light" and "Thy Will Be Done."

There was a profusion of magnificent floral tributes in memory of the sleeper.
The pallbearers were Messrs. Charles S. Merick, William S. Wells, John H.
Platt, Benjamin R. English, W. H.
Crossley and James Terry. Edward C.
Beecher was master of ceremonies.
Messrs. Lewis & Maycock were the undertakers in charge. The interment was in the family lot in the Grove street cemetery.

Among those present were ex-Alderman George B. Martin, ex-Alderman Dickerman, C. S. Morehouse, D. R. Al-ling, E. S. Kimberly, James H. Foy, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pardee, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Augur, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Bradley, Milo D. Tuttle, Theodore F. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. R. Menross, C. S. Merick, Mrs. Andrew R. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Ellis, Charles E. Alling, George R. Burton, B. R.
English, Mrs. S. C. Johnson, Mrs. William Crossley, Mr. Douglass of Dillon & Douglass and many others.

AT LAKE WHITNEY.
The skating rink—large crowds at the lake.

The skating at Lake Whitney is excellent and many of the cars were taxis yesterday to their utmost in carrying the crowds to and fro. The New Haven Street Railroad company had fifty men at work yesterday and Monday afternoon clearing the snow off the ice and as a result there is a large amount open to the skaters. Yesterday afternoon and last evening the lake was crowded with the merry skaters, who were enjoying themselves to their utmost.

A PLEASANT EVENT.
An Entertainment Last Evening at the Messiah Church.

The entertainment given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the Church of the Messiah was attended by a good-sized audience last night.
The following program was well carried out:

Music—
Espagnola Mandolin Club.
The Sleeping Car (a farce).
—Mr. W. D. Howells.
—Mr. Orters.

Music—Duet—Misses Klock and Hoyer, accompanied by Miss Nellie Hoyer.

a.—The Benediction (with organ accompaniment by John W. Rice). b.—Mr. Harris' Comic Song.

—J. K. Jerome
—Mehitable
—E. J. Hall
Mr. Orters.

Music—
Espagnola Mandolin Club.
a.—Guessing Nationalities, Mark Twain b.—The Debating Society—E. J. Hall
—Mr. Orters.

Mr. Orters occupies a leading position among elocutionists, maintaining it by the possession of unusual talent and good judgment in selection and rendition. His voice is pleasant, well modulated and carefully trained. He should be heard here again.

DWIGHT THRALL.
Humane Agent, Favors the Whipping Post for Wife Beaters.

Hartford, Jan. 30.—At the annual meeting of the Connecticut Humane society this afternoon General Agent Dwight W. Thrall advocated the whipping post for brutal husbands who practice cruelty upon their wives. He said that if men who drink and beat their wives and children could suffer the sting of the lash it would lessen the abuses.

The eldest of three little chaps was sternly reproved by his mother for his bad behavior. "You are the oldest, Cyrus," she said, "and you ought to be an example to Homer and Jack."
"Well, I'll be an example to Homer," said Cyrus, "but I won't be an example for both of 'em, Homer's got to be it for Jack."—Boston Transcript.
